Optimal Table of Contents

Introduction

Chronology

I. Theory

1. First Discourse on Arts and Sciences 15
2. Second Discourse on Inequality (complete) 150
3. Essay on the Origins of Language (complete) 27
4. Social Contract (complete) 160
5. Letter to d'Alembert on the Theater 160
6. Letter to M. de Franquières (complete) 22
7. Letter to Voltaire (complete) 22
8. Miscellaneous fragments
   On eloquence, on the idea of method in the composition of a book, on pronunciation, on lexicology, on women, etc. 22

II. Fiction

1. Pygmalion (complete) 10
2. Julie or la Nouvelle Héloïse (excerpts)
   Preface
   I, 23 Letter from the Valais
   I, 26 St. Preux at la Meillerie
   III, 17 Julie's marriage
   III, 18 Recapitulation
II. 2. IV, 11 Julie's garden

IV, 17 Return of Julie and St. Preus to la Meillerie

VI, 8 Julie's swan song

VI, 11-12 Death of Julie

3. Emile (including Vicaire savoyard) excerpts 70

III. Autobiography

1. Preface to Narcissus (complete) 15

2. Letters to Malesherbes (complete) 25

3. Confessions (excerpts) 70

4. Reveries (excerpts) 70

973*

Critical Bibliography

*In evaluating the page numbers, I have taken an average of 300 words per page in the current Viking Portable edition and subtracted 7% from the word-count in translating from French into English.