FIELD NOTES

The interview was conducted in the narrator’s house. Present during the interview were the Narrator Nancy Nhungh Phan, the interviewer Tramanh Vu. We followed protocol and signed all consent and release forms before the interview. I took photos of the narrator and she was very comfortable throughout the entire process of the interview.

Mrs Nhungh was very comfortable because the interview was in her house. She prepares about 14 pages of notes that she think she need to cover in the interview. She put them in front of her but when we begin to talk, she totally forget those notes, she just talk naturally.

It is recommended that the interviewer talk/call/communicate with the narrators closely before the interview. Narrators will be more focus and serious.
